

FAMILY DRUGGED WHILE BURGLARS LOOT APARTMENT

Father and Daughters Chloroformed by Thieves, Who Escape With Watch and Money.

Burglars raided the apartment of Max Grabshoff at No. 56 Second street early today and took about $100 in cash and a gold watch valued at $100. Grabshoff and his two young daughters were chloroformed while the place was being ransacked.

Grabshoff is a well-to-do painter, and has lived in the neighborhood for many years. He lives on the fourth floor of the Second street apartment house with his wife, four daughters and two sons.

The old painter is in the habit of rising every morning at 5:30. He occupies a room with two of his daughters, Sadie, fourteen, and Eva, eight. This morning he awoke at about 6:30. His alarm clock which had as usual been set for 5:30 had been turned back several hours. He jumped from his bed and awoke the two children and found that they were also dazed.

Grabshoff went through the apartment and found that everything in the place had been ransacked. Several papers were lying on the kitchen floor, a bank book and a check for $90 were also on the floor, and all the drawers and closets in the house were open and their contents scattered.

On the roof was found evidence that the burglars had escaped that way after leaving the apartment. They had evidently taken Grabshoff's trousers and waistcoat to the roof, and, after searching the pockets, had thrown them into the yard.

Minnie, the eldest daughter, is to be married to-morrow night and had received many valuable presents, which were stored on the top of a closet. These were not disturbed.

STRIKERS HURL BOMB; WRECK LISBON SUBWAY.

Others Cut Gas Main and Cause Explosion That Fatally Injures Three Men.

LISBON, Jan. 15.—Today a bomb was exploded in the Chelsea tunnel of the Belt Line Railway. No one was injured, but several holes were torn in the underground passage necessitating the suspension of traffic on the Belt Line.

It is believed that the bomb was thrown by a discharged workman. In addition to the bomb affair there was an underground explosion of gas near the railroad terminal last night which caused much alarm. Three workmen were seriously burned and considerable damage to property in the vicinity was done. The explosion was due to the gas main having been cut by the gas house workmen, who were on strike, or their sympathizers. The railroad service continued to-day as usual.

AMBASSADOR BRYCE TO LEAVE WASHINGTON?

LONDON, Jan. 15.—Rumors that Ambassador Bryce contemplates an early retirement from his post at Washington are again current. Sir Maurice de Bunsen, British Ambassador at Madrid, is once more mentioned as the possible successor to Mr. Bryce.

Will Give Town New Hall. By the terms of the will of Winfield Robbins, died with the Surrogate today, Arlington, Mass., will have a new town hall. Mr. Robbins, who lived in this city, died last November in France. Besides providing for a town hall, he bequeathed $25,000 to the Robbins Library at Arlington.

IGNORED GIRLS' APPEALS TO SAVE DROWNING MAN.

Bridge Tender at Newark Persisted in Denial of Evidence Even After Victim Sank.

The Newark police to-day searched for the body of Duncan McMillan, twenty-nine years old, of No. 112 Grant avenue, who was drowned in the Passaic River Saturday morning by falling from a drawbridge. Delay in grappling for the body was due to the denial of Jeremiah F. Riordan, engineer of the draw, that any one had been drowned.

This denial was in spite of hysterical cries of scores of girls who were waiting for the bridge to close. Some of the girls fainted as they saw McMillan drop into the river, swim a few strokes and disappear.

McMillan's hat was found in a stone-ward at the foot of Clay street, where workmen had fished it out. Even then no action was taken, but yesterday Edward Kinsley of No. 119 Oliver street, Newark, reported to Police Headquarters that he had seen McMillan fall from the bridge. Finally Patrick Fitzsimmons related that he and McMillan were walking together when the shop whistle blew and McMillan ran toward the bridge.

The drowned man is one of a family of fifteen and his death, the first in the family, has prostrated his parents.

MAGISTRATES SCORED FOR REFUSING BAIL RELEASES.

Judge Swann Says It is a Shame to Hold Prisoners Who Can Get Bonds.

The Board of City Magistrates recently adopted a rule not to accept bail for persons held on trial on charges for which the penalty is more than five years' imprisonment.

To-day a dozen lawyers made application to Judge Swann in General Sessions for the release of clients held by the Magistrates Saturday and kept in jail over Sunday. The Magistrate in each instance, so the lawyers told Judge Swann, refused absolutely to entertain a bail proposition.

"Some steps should be taken about this," Judge Swann said, "for it is a shame to keep a man in jail pending trial when he is presumed to be innocent and his friends are willing to furnish bail for him."

Chief Magistrate McAdoo said to-day that the rule had been adopted by the Board of City Magistrates because of the ruling of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court in the charges against Magistrate Barlow recently.

PALM READING IS LEGITIMATE DECLARES SEER

Fletcher, "Palmist Extraordinary," Will Fight Case of Girl Detective.

"Prof." John W. Fletcher, "palmist extraordinary," his mystic eyes soggy and listless and protesting his innocence in a squeaky voice, was admitted to bail by Justice Goff in the Supreme Court to-day, pending argument on an application for a writ of habeas corpus. Justice Goff will hear the case Friday. Bail was fixed at $1,000.

Fletcher was arrested Dec. 5, 1910, and directly thereafter admitted to bail, his case being adjourned until to-morrow. Anticipating difficulty, Fletcher surrendered his bail to-day and went with his lawyers, George Gordon Battle and Leslie to Justice Goff in Chambers.

The palmist's lawyers propose to make a test case of Fletcher's arrest. They assert that the code of criminal procedure is deficient in that it does not properly define a legitimate palmist, and that it does not provide for a palmist's admission to bail after his arrest.

Fletcher has declared that he is a legitimate palmist, maintaining that he deals in no fake stocks, no love powders and does not recover lost or stolen property. He points to his twenty-six years' experience as evidence of the integrity of his business, which, his lawyers assert, does not materially differ from the practice of Christian Science and Phrenology.

Fletcher was arrested following the visit to his house at No. 17 West Thirty-seventh street of Mrs. Isabelle Cordukes, a female detective operating under Commissioner Flynn's directions. In her affidavit, made to Assistant District Attorney H. C. Dickinson, the detective charges Fletcher with "pretending to tell fortunes," which is held to be criminal by the code. She swears he predicted she would be lucky in real estate, railroad mines, principally the latter.

NEW AUTO BURNS UP.

Defective Feed Pipe Spoils Martin's Ride. Gene Martin, who lives at No. 14 West Fourth street, was driving a new touring car for which he had paid $2,000 along Hoffman Boulevard in Jamaica, L. I., to-day when it caught fire and was destroyed.

A defective feed pipe began to belch flames and before Martin was aware of the danger the lower part of the car was ablaze. He managed to steer the machine into a ditch and jump out without injury, but he was unable to stay the progress of the fire.
